Calling all current and future KomBioTa members -
You're invited to our next get-together!

Whether you're new to KomBioTa, a long-time member, or haven't joined yet and want to hear what we're all about - all are welcome!

When:

Wednesday 29 July, 7:30 pm

Where:

Staatliche Hochschule für Musik und Darstellende Kunst
Stuttgart for bird watching, followed by drinks at
Akademie der Schönsten Künste

Meeting point:

Urbanstraße 25, 70182 Stuttgart
(Stuttgart city-center, 7 minute walk from Olgaek U-bahn Station)

The Alpine swift nests in the tower of the Staatliche Hochschule für Musik und Darstellende Kunst in Stuttgart. The evening is a great time to see the birds flying in and out of the tower, which is open to the public. Join us to enjoy watching this local spectacle before we sit down at the Akademie der Schönsten Künste for a relaxed evening together.

Send us an email at kombiota@uni-hohenheim.de to let us know if you plan on attending.

As always, food and drinks are self-paid.

In the meantime, check out our homepage to learn more about who we are, what we do, and what our members are up to!
